

The Strathcona Chronicle.

Government offices

Vol. IV

STRATHCONA CHRONICLE, FRIDAY, AUG. 30, 1907

No. 2

THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO

ESTABLISHED 1897

S. E. WALKER, President
ALEX. LAIRD, General Manager
A. H. IRELAND, Superintendent of Branches

Branches throughout Canada, and in the United States and England

Paid-up Capital, $10,000,000
Rest - 5,000,000
Total Assets, - 113,000,000

A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS TRANSACTED

COMMERCIAL AND FARMERS' PAPER DISCOUNTED

$4

SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT

Deposits of $1 and upwards received, and interest allowed at current rates. The depositor is subject to no delay whatever in the withdrawal of the whole or any portion of the deposit.

Strathcona Branch, G. W. MAERIOTT, Manager

The D. L. C.

OFFERS

CEDAR SHEETINGS
PINE SIDING
FIR FLOORING
TAMARAC DIMENSIONS
SPRUCE SHIPLAP

Best Qualities British Columbia Lumber

SHINGLES ALSO DOORS WINDOWS
LATH AND STAIRS STORMS
TIN ALL DESCRIPTIONS TRANSOMS
LIME OF CASINOS MOULDING
WOOD FIBRE BUILDING PAPER

AT LOWEST PRICES

THE DONNEN LUMBER CO.

Subscribers to CUSHING BROS. Co. Ltd.

Phone 18

STRATHCONA COAL CO.

Delivers the best coal, mined 100 feet below surface receiving good pressure; burns without clinkering.

Screened Furnace and Stove Coal

$4.50 per ton.

Screened Nut Coal $3.50 per ton.

Slack $2.50.

TERMS: Cash on Delivery; Cash orders left with W. E. Ross will receive prompt attention.

PHONE 63

One Week Only, beginning
SATURDAY, AUG. 24th

ONE HUNDRED

Copyright Books
AT HALF PRICE

BLAIN & CO.

Clearing Sale OF CHAIRS

An Assortment of Diners at 65c and Up
Rockers, Arm Chairs at a REDUCTION
... See Our Windows...
PICTURE FRAMING
McCallum & Wesbrook

Two Doors West of Main Street

Subscribe for the Chronicle
$1.00 Per Year

BORDEN HERE IN OCTOBER

BY J. R. L. BORDEN

Conservative Leader Will Speak in Edmonton on Monday, October 9, 1907.

The itinerary of Mr. R. L. Borden, the Conservative leader in Alberta, has now been practically arranged. The schedule provides a meeting at Wetaskiwin on the evening of October 8th and Edmonton on the 9th. He will be at Calgary on the 7th and in South Alberta the previous week. Mr. Borden comes from British Columbia over the Crow's Nest Pass road and pass from the south to north Alberta into Saskatchewan.

GENERAL ELECTION IN MARCH

Announced on High Authority That Laurier Has Settled Date.

Ottawa, Aug. 25.—It is announced on the very highest authority that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has made up his mind to appeal to the country in March next. This may be taken as practically official as it comes from the most reliable source.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM

Lem Martin Answer's Sudden Call

Manager of White Star Mine Died During the Night in His Room in the Dominion Hotel.
Heart Failure the Cause.

Lem Martin, bookkeeper and manager of the White Star mine, was found dead this morning in his room, No. 34, in the Dominion Hotel. The body was discovered by the porter while on his usual morning round to awaken the guests.

Dr. Crang was immediately summoned and found on examination that the man had been dead for some hours. Dr. Crang, who had been in attendance on Martin on off, says he had suffered from heart trouble for the past three years and pronounced death due to disease of that organ and considered an inquest unnecessary.

The body was removed to Walwright's undertaking rooms, from where it will be buried on Sunday. Martin was a member of the Orange order and also "B" squadron C. M. R., and the funeral will be conducted under the auspices of the church.

The deceased was a native of Prince Edward Island and came west several years ago. He was a practical miner, and ever since it started has been Messrs. McKenzie & Blain, the owners. He was thirty years of age and unmarried.

His parents both died here, and a sister, Mrs. McKenzie, resides near the old home. Prince Edward Island, and another, Mrs. E. G. Roberts, formerly resided here, but is now living at Cornwall, England. Another brother is in British Columbia. The deceased is very highly spoken of by his employers and associates and they feel his death keenly.

Lemieux Entertained
Lieut.-Governor

(Special to the Chronicle)

Ottawa, Aug. 29.—Yesterday a luncheon was given at the Ritz-Carlton Club in honor of Lieutenant-Governor Sir Louis Jette of Quebec, by the Hon. Rudolph Lemieux, postmaster-general. There were also present Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the former prime minister, and Mr. A. B. Patterson, appointed cabinet minister, the Hon. A. B. Aylenworth, and the Hon. Wm. Patterson.

It was noted as a matter of interest that on this day thirty years ago Governor Jeffery Amherst and Wm. George Cartier, the Hon. Sir Francis Hinckley,

B. C. Fishing Limits
Extended

Vancouver, Aug. 29.—Owing to the disastrous sockeye fishing season the Fisheries Department has issued a temporary ban on salmon fishing in the Fraser river. This禁令 has granted to fishermen holding Fraser river licenses the privilege of fishing for salmon along the coast as far north as Rivers Inlet.

Another Strike Nearly Over

Montreal, Aug. 29.—The garment workers strike is thought to be approaching an end, and the firms are reported to have signed a new agreement with the union. General Traveller Landers, of the Garment Workers Union, reached the city today and expects to be able to arrange a settlement before the end of the week.

How to Get Labor

Louise, Aug. 28.—Mr. Haywood, M.P., writes sympathetically in the press about the dearth of labor in British Columbia. He suggests that the money spent in building and maintaining public works for the unemployed might better be devoted to paying the passage of workmen people to where labor is always in demand.

Incendiaries Pardoned

Saint Vital, Aug. 28.—H. G. Bushwiller and E. S. Jordan, two former students of the South Dakota University at Yankton, S.D., were pardoned through executive clemency. Governor Crawford pardoned them. Bushwiller, while students at Vermillion University, was accused of setting fire to the well hall, one of the university buildings and a number of old dilapidated shacks had got out their usefulness. They were charged with arson. The incendiaries and the buildings were burned to the ground. It was generally believed that the trees were of incendiary origin, but suspicion never pointed to the two students.

Will Not Surrender
Marine

New York, Aug. 29.—Col. P. Sinclair Murphy, commander of United States marines, recently assigned to the U.S. Marine Corps in Brazil, declined yesterday to surrender to the Brothman police Michel Marino, the marine who shot and wounded two men who were among the crowd which was jeering at the marines last night.

NOTICE!

A meeting of Conservatives of Strathcona and district will be held on Thursday evening, Sept. 5th, in Masonic Hall, Whyte Ave. for purposes of organization. No written notices will be sent out. A full attendance is urgently requested.

J. J. DUGGAN,
Pres.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Hospital Aid Society will be held Monday, Sept. 2nd, at 8 p.m., in J. G. Tappin's office. All members are requested to be present. Important business—the election of officers.

Salvation Army Will Send 20,000

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—Brigadier Horatio of the Salvation Army, who has just returned from England, met the press today. He said that the society would have approximately 20,000 immigrants from Europe to Canada next year. The army expects to send to this country from 20,000 to 25,000 immigrants.

A Galt Eloping

Galt, Aug. 28.—Peter Meyer, a chimney sweep, of the Dominion, has disappeared as a domestic here, and it is probable they have eloped. Meyer was painting a restaurant where the woman was employed. He has a wife and family in Galt.

Drowned His Daughter

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 28.—Albert S. Baldwin, 27, Baldwin Avenue, a householder for the State, became insane yesterday, and taking his two year old daughter, Helen, to the Belle Isle bridge last night, threw her into the river and then leaped after her. Lemire's son is of a religious order, and he believed he was doing a sacrifice to God for the sins of the world.

Modern Armament for Lake Boat.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—Four modern quick-firing guns have been mounted on the Canadian Fishery Protection Cruiser Vigilant on Lake Ontario. They have a range of four and a half miles and can fire a single shot at a distance of 1,000 yards. These guns have been mounted on the boat to repel pirates who have threatened the safety of the ship. The gunners are to be trained to use them.

Tried to Stop Runaway

Chatham, Ont., Aug. 29.—While trying to stop a runaway yesterday, Miss Pender, daughter of a Harwich farmer, was fatally hurt.

Paraded Yesterday, Died Today

(Special to the Chronicle)

Winnipeg, Aug. 29.—T. Col. Royal Scotts, Montreal, died at the hospital this morning. His end was suddenly, as he was on parade yesterday afternoon.

ALLAN, CAMERON & BLACKWOOD

Real Estate Agents

CHOICE FARMS & CITY PROPERTY.

SOLE Agents for

THE ALLENDALE ADDITION.

This property will be on the market in about 8 days.

Price from $100.00 up $10.00 cash and $10.00 per month until paid.

We are sorry we have been disappointed in getting out the new map, but we hope to have it ready in a few days.

TORRID ZONE STILL FURNACE

The only Furnace to consume its own Gas and Smoke. The radiation is greater for its size than any other Furnaces made :: :: :: ::

If you want one or thinking of one drop into

McLean & Co's Hardware

and inspect it

If you want to please your wife buy her one of those

KITCHEN CABINETS

We are also agents for

Cream Separators, Farm

Scissors, Chaffers, Fanning

Mills, Windmills and

Yards, Garden Tools and

Orchards, Buggies and

Carriages, Northwest

Threshing Outfits, Well

Boring Outfits.

Also a full line of the celebrated

Massey Harris Co. Farm implements

the best money can buy

Phone 93

Great Sale of Boots and Shoes!

Having received a heavy shipment of Winter Stock, we are compelled to make room for it and have decided to sell our spring and summer goods at wholesale cost price.

This stock consists of over $800 dollars worth of boots and shoes in all its varieties from the finest and best makers in Canada!

Come early while there are full lines

These are regular bargains, and as we sell at cost price it has to be cash.

F. Buhler, Strathcona

WANTED

Teachers wanted for Mathematics and Physics for High School, Strathcona, Alberta. Salary $1200. Specialist preferred. Duties to commence not later than Oct. 15. A. T. Moore, Secretary.

ICE & DRY WOOD.

Delivered to any part of the City.

CASH ON DELIVERY.

East End Wood Yard

G. McAllister, Prop.

25-31

ESTRAY

On the N.W. corner of 22nd, one black max and one tan max, both young, no

brand visible. Owner may have some on proving property and paying export.

H. C. MITCHELL,

Strathcona, P. O.

A TURN OF THE WHEEL

By Constance D'Arcy Mackay.

Copyright, 1927, by Constance D'Arcy Mackay.

—
—
—
—
—

It was summer in Balmoral—long days of blue and white and green, the blue of the sky, the white of drifting clouds and the bright green of the iris, tulip and rose beds scattered in the fields, with roses blooming in the hedge, fragrant and exquisite, yet full of snare for the unwary. Many an eager child had come only to withdraw a scented briar.

Terry O'Hourke, looking up from his potato patch, philosophically observed that "these flowers were as sharp as the thorns of hell." He said this, and then, smiled to himself, thinking of Clashodah May. Hazel eyed she was, with roses blooming in her hair, as will roses and temper as evened as the prickliest thorn.

"Yes, what more should the world be?" said he. "If the rose is worth the winning?"

It was as quiet and determined as Clashodah's smile, as his neighbor declared, he was a bit slow in his lovemaking he was none the less sure. Terry, who had been a good boy, Jim Hagan, who had lately fallen heir to a legacy who had spent the half of it in the care of his mother, was the major himself. It was in this that Jim had begged Clashodah to accompany him to the Guilmulf fair, some ten miles distant.

"Thank you, Jim," she answered, ed. "But I've promised to go with Ter-

"Well, this is my fault that will have to do me," sighed Jim, who was not used to being asked to give up one in Balmoral who may have taken your place at all!"

Then, just before the fair Clashodah and Terry sat before her door discussing the joys of the morrow.

"We're going to have a gay time," said he, "but we're back by nightfall."

"And I'll wear my best dress, with the blue ribbon and Clashodah, and keep my place in the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah, "when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

Clashodah stamped her foot.

"I've given you your choice, Terry O'Hourke. Once and for all, which will ye take?"

Terry was slowly to a snore, but now a drowsy spark burned in his eye.

"With a will, Clashodah," he said.

Clashodah leaped and hopped the dog.

Next morning she passed Terry's cabin, riding with Jim Hagan in his jaunting car. Her muslin dress was as blue as the sky, and Clashodah's hair was tinted in the wine. Terry was out in his garden, and Clashodah feigned not to notice him. Jim gazed round with a look of triumph.

"How are ye, Terry?" he called out, "a fine day for the fair."

As Clashodah rode down the road, the new yellow wheels of the jaunting car shined in the sun.

For a moment she forgot all the brightness seemed gone from life. But as it was in the case of his happiness had Clashodah's heart turned to darkness. "Twas a wise man," he muttered, "who said that fortune was a jaded wife. A turn of her wheel and where are ye now, Terry O'Hourke?"

He turned his head up slowly, but the plough and cart and the road for Guilmulf.

There was no one to see Clashodah off to Balmoral, except the old women and children. The rest of her neighbors had risen with the day, and Clashodah had been left alone in the village, where there were a few tardy wayfarers like themselves. And these, too, having the start of their day, had not stopped to wait. She tented enough. She felt that she was looking her best, and if she had any doubt about it, the smile of Clashodah would have reassured her. She answered his mocking with laughing hard, and then, as the sun rose in the twentieth time that he would make the kindest husband in the world when the journey began at last, Terry lurch, and Clashodah, having said a final good-bye, were soon out of sight.

"It's a long day, and we'll have a few tardy wayside like themselves. And these, too, having the start of their day, had not stopped to wait. She tented enough. She felt that she was looking her best, and if she had any doubt about it, the smile of Clashodah would have reassured her. She ansawed his mocking with laughing hard, and then, as the sun rose in the twentieth time that he would make the kindest husband in the world when the journey began at last, Terry lurch, and Clashodah, having said a final good-bye, were soon out of sight.

"It's in the wheel that's troubling ye," but Clashodah's sarcasm was lost in the sun.

"My love car," he cried over and over again. From where they stood it was a short walk to the Guilmulf fair to Guilmulf. The fields and lanes stretched away unbroken to the sky with here and there a cabin.

"Well, there's a cabin in Clashodah," said Clashodah. Her ankle was painless, her smile was very wide.

Her smile did not repeat itself as meeting emergencies, and with his hand on one side he considered the situation.

"I'm thinking we'll have to foot it," he said.

"I'm a fool in Clashodah's voice," he said.

"My ankle's wrench'd, and 'tis no step further I'll go," she avowed.

"You sit here till I come, and I'll go for help," said Clashodah, face crimson.

"It's summer in Balmoral—long days of blue and white and green, the blue of the sky, the white of drifting clouds and the bright green of the iris, tulip and rose beds scattered in the fields, with roses blooming in the hedge, fragrant and exquisite, yet full of snare for the unwary. Many an eager child had come only to withdraw a scented briar.

Terry O'Hourke, looking up from his potato patch, philosophically observed that "these flowers were as sharp as the thorns of hell." He said this, and then, smiled to himself, thinking of Clashodah May. Hazel eyed she was, with roses blooming in her hair, as will roses and temper as evened as the prickliest thorn.

"Yes, what more should the world be?" said he. "If the rose is worth the winning?"

It was as quiet and determined as Clashodah's smile, as his neighbor declared, he was a bit slow in his lovemaking he was none the less sure. Terry, who had been a good boy, Jim Hagan, who had lately fallen heir to a legacy who had spent the half of it in the care of his mother, was the major himself. It was in this that Jim had begged Clashodah to accompany him to the Guilmulf fair, some ten miles distant.

"Thank you, Jim," she answered,

ed. "But I've promised to go with Ter-

"Well, this is my fault that will have to do me," sighed Jim, who was not used to being asked to give up one in Balmoral who may have taken your place at all!"

Then, just before the fair Clashodah and Terry sat before her door discussing the joys of the morrow.

"We're going to have a gay time," said he, "but we're back by nightfall."

"And I'll wear my best dress, with the blue ribbon and Clashodah, and keep my place in the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"

"You've done it before," said Clashodah,

"when you lay your dress on me."

"Leave your best dress to home, then," said Terry humbly.

Catch me, then, and we'll see what you said haughtily. "Will ye take me or will ye take the pig?"

"I'll take you, be reasonable. The pig can do no harm. She's as clean as an angel and well behaved, and I'll take her to the pack."

"I mistrust you'll have to tell it on your lap, my dearest," said Terry, with a pig-like giggle.

"It—if you will take me," she said humbly.

"I'll give you a piece of bread for ya, Jim," said Terry, "and a bit o' your cheese. Bide it will stay your hungry hill before arrival. Don't sit it too fast," he added, "or you'll be in a tangle."

"I'm going to take the ride along in the dark, and when I get there, I'll pay for it," he purred.

"Terry O'Hourke," shrieked Clashodah, "say if you'd ride in a cart with a pig!"</

EAST END GROCERY

OUR FRONT SIDE

Lemons, Oranges, Apples, Plums, Green Gages, Water Melons, Cantelopes, Squash, Blueberries Corn, Tomatoes, etc.

Our Grocery Stock is complete with Fresh Groceries, Flour, Shorts, Bran, Oatmeal, Corn Meal, Wheat Flakes, Buckwheat Flour, all kinds of Breakfast Foods. Creamery and Dairy Butter

SELLING OUT OUR CROCKERY

Not going to handle any more. Now is your chance. You'll get it at almost Wholesale price. BUY NOW.

D. L. GHORMLEY

FREE DELIVERY

PHONE 67

The Strathcona Chronicle.

A JOURNAL DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF STRATHCONA AND SURROUNDING DISTRICTS.

PUBLISHED AT STRATHCONA EVERY FRIDAY.

SUBSCRIPTION: $10 a Year, Strictly in Advance.

OFFICE, Next Government Land Office, Whyte Avenue East.

THE CHRONICLE CO. - PUBLISHERS. JAMES WILSON - MANAGER.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Transactions Advertisements, such as Legal Notices, Tenders, Lost, Found, Wanted, etc., the first insertion free, subsequent insertions, minimum charge, 25c.

Commercial Advertising rates on application.

Professional Cards of seven lines $10 per quarter.

Commercial Advertising Accounts payable monthly, others in advance. Four insertions can be had for $100.

To ensure insertion, all Advertisements and Changes should be in the Office not later than Midnight, Birth and Death notices inserted free.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We invite correspondence on all matters of public interest and especially country news, but do not guarantee to publish them. We do not publish personal or confidential letters, nor do we publish the names of the correspondents. We accept all letters for insertion through our local agents, but not necessarily for publication.

JOB WORK.

THE CHRONICLE OFFICE is well supplied with all kinds of type and is prepared to receive the shortest notices and job work. Frequent despatch of copy is guaranteed.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The city council will be ill-advised if it pays any attention to the letter of the Mayor, who wants to have the licensing of beer prohibited. The letter says in part: "I believe that it will be in the interest of this city to exert a by-law to license, regulate and control the keeping of tobacco and spirituous liquors."

I BELIEVE THE LICENSE SHOULD BE MADE SUFFICIENTLY HIGH TO STOP ANOTHER AND EVERVTHING FROM DEALING IN THIS CLASS OF GOODS.

Then follows a whole lot of sarcastic taunts about boys with poor lungs, weak hearts, no brains and manhood which comes with the smoke. It does the harmiest thing to the heart of a boy. We believe that boys should not smoke cigarettes, and other information is to the effect that. However, it is the Criminal code provides a penalty for the sale of them to minors.

The persons guilty of selling cigarettes in this city have been caught as we can learn from Chinese and other foreigners. Let the police get them.

One information is to the effect that the city council has no authority to enact or enforce such a by-law as the mayor suggests. The mayor is a year old and we know if they have no power he knew it then why did he write the letter?

The tobacco business in this city runs into millions of dollars a year. The merchants dealing in it are among the most progressive, respectable and substantial. Edmonton is two miles away. Does the mayor suppose to make the sale of tobacco prohibitory that the trade may be driven to Edmonton? Men will keep on smoking. "My Lady Nine" don't want men to smoke. In fact she has it in her power to banish away his own pipe and plug. Where will he get it?

The man wants to cover the business to the best of his ability. We are told is the intention, there are two things which will happen. First, we see the drift of the mayor's progressive ideas and we know if they have no power he knew it then why did he write the letter?

The tobacco business in this city runs into millions of dollars a year. The merchants dealing in it are among the most progressive, respectable and substantial. Edmonton is two miles away. Does the mayor suppose to make the sale of tobacco prohibitory that the trade may be driven to Edmonton?

However, the council cannot have failed heretofore to size up the mayor's "epistles" effusiveness and we believe they will not in this case.

The circulation man of the Edmonton Journal in his desire to get Strathcona business is making the statement that the Journal has a larger circulation than the Strathcona Chronicle. This is true. It is possible that the Edmonton paper might let a "sliver" stray from its own side, but the man who is too fond of his own paper and the rest of this city would allow his story ought to be guarded. His talk is a sad reflection on the institution responsible for our outbreaks.

This is an unsightly and unhealthy mud hole adjoining the city pound. The pond itself is a sloppily and un-places imperfectly drained. Last spring a terrible lake existed near the corner of 104th and 105th Streets and around the Winterer home. The Mayor and Chairman of the Board of Works had a ditch dug and the water drained off, but when they had the dirt piled up, having been washed away, it became evident from the clouds that it would never be needed again. This morning we met the owner of a stable in the swamp zone who said he had to go to town for a pair of rubber boots so that he might be as comfortable as possible to the stable to feed his horses. He claimed that the weather was too cold to swim in. He had a few moments ago, when I asked him if that dirt took quite a while to dry up, replied that he had to leave the place where he was drawing water in the eye of the Globe but it hardly will in those of the people.

It is quite true that the public works department of the city council has been hampered by lack of funds, but it doesn't seem that a little more judgment might have been exercised in deciding on

The difference between the wages of a man hired to drain a lake down to a puddle hole and those spent on the sidewalk to drain the roadway, and the cost of a few loads of dirt to raise the road to the level of the street, is a trifling sum compared with the cost of the labor required to move the dirt. It is a waste of time and money to let the dirt stand about the way the public orders were done and a sane and sensible way of doing it. If the dirt can't be got, then leave the road to the city to dry up and let the man who is to clean up the street do so to save the cost of all details so as to save the boys?

At the council meeting tomorrow night, one of the subjects to be dealt with will be the question of whether or not the water will be drained and the location will be drained and not the entire area in the city to be if no action is taken.

At the council meeting tomorrow night, one of the subjects to be dealt with will be the question of whether or not the water will be drained and the location will be drained and not the entire area in the city to be if no action is taken.

The residents of this city are now planning to the point keeper about snow plowing at large. The point keeper complies to the council that the point keeper to the city for water, and the road to be made fit for travel.

He tried to raise the gate and the water came over the top of his rubber boots and he backed up. One policeman was sent to help him out of the water and the mayor said he wouldn't do a thing about it. He had given too much trouble about it already.

He said that the mayor has never been criticized adversely, but instances of omission and commission have received the attention of the paper and will continue to do so. It is the duty of every public man to act the schoolboy, and because he can't have his own way, will refuse to play.

The water is in an unfit condition.

The water raised a foot last night.

A great part of the west end of the city is being drained today.

The condition is due to a demand in the property in the vicinity and the condition of the owners and residents. Whoever is responsible should buy out or get out.

The water raised a foot last night.

A great part of the west end of the city is being drained today.

The condition is due to a demand in the property in the vicinity and the condition of the owners and residents. Whoever is responsible should buy out or get out.

After writing the above it came to the knowledge of the aldermen that the Chronicle wrote a story a week or two about the winterer home, which was not true.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家。

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

The hypocritical pretense that the

scheme is in the interests of the boys is to be blamed.

The man wants to cover the business of an Edmonton business does not matter—we are inclined to the belief that the scheme did not originate in the front door of the冬冬家.

If a license can be imposed soft

drily high to drive the small dealers out of the business, we could pay a few of $40 to get the company to do what they are doing.

We congratulate the board on its action, and we assure them that the person who gave the interview in the Edmonton

paper is to be blamed.

LOCAL

(From Saturday's Daily)
W. H. Shepard left this morning to spend the week end at Gull Lake.

Captain E. F. McRae, Thomas, editor of the Canadian Mail, was in town today, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas.

Among the officers who succeeded in finding the tracks, yesterday were Messrs J. F. Neir, J. V. Green and A. L. Richards, who succeeded in bagging 40 at Cameron's Lake.

A. W. and Mrs. C. C. Parker, who have been visiting at the home of James Tough near Edmonton, left this morning on the south bound train for a few days at Banff, after which they will return east.

Hoppe Alanson, late of Vegreville but formerly residing here, was in the city on Thursday accompanied by his wife and two sons. Hoppe had a few days to the Coast but will spend a few days at Watiskaw on the way.

The annual picnic of Holy Trinity church Senior school was held on Thursday, in Walter's flat. The usual games were indulged in, and supper served. About a hundred participated in the festivities. The reports very enjoyable time was up to 42.

J. J. Laughlin of Carroll, Manitoba is visiting here. Augustus Lassell, Mr. and Mrs. Lassell who are an interesting man and naturally interested in the crop situation say the outlook in this district is much better than he has seen in his travels.

An amusing incident was observed at the depot on Thursday, when the boy containing the article & other paraphernalia of the St. John Ambulance corps arrived from Calgary. The boy was enveloped in a long coat and the heavy fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin as no one had lived in the place for some weeks. The house was formed of stone and brick and was consequently unassimilable in the neighborhood. The action of the Edmonton police in driving off the fallen women of the city is probably to have the same general result that most of us of them might try to establish themselves on this side and prevent such a development set in as would one day lead to a riotous scene.

The house belonged to a man named Jakob who lives at Leduc, and was worth about $600. Whether or not there was any insurance on it could not be learned.

Arrested Wrong Chinaman

Winnipeg, Aug. 29.—E. H. Hilditch, of the Regina police force, arrived at St. Boniface to lay the identity of the Chinaman held in the lockup as being the alleged slayer of two young men of that city before his arrival. He was unable to identify the man as being the Chinaman he was looking for because of the fact that he had been shot in the head.

The inspector has ordered them out of his bailiwick, there seems nothing left for him but to migrate.

The police of the city of Edmonton on Saturday night called the beat in spot to search for the Chinaman who had absconded without the city walls. As the inspector has ordered them out of his bailiwick, there seems nothing left for him but to migrate.

The Chief of Police of Edmonton has warned Dr. Wanamaker, owner of the Trotter Hotel, which was to be razed at the exhibition grounds, that if he makes any arrangements for a lottery it is contrary to law, and that he is liable to a fine of $2000 if he persists. Every person who holds a ticket is liable to a fine of $20.

The heavy rain of yesterday, and especially last night, accompanied as it was with a high wind, knocked down many fields of grain in this vicinity. The farmers in the city are advised to hasten their harvests as it is evident that a heavy rain is contrary to law, and that he is liable to a fine of $2000 if he persists.

An Unnatural Mother
(Special to the Chronicle)

Montreal, Aug. 27.—Shrinking with age, Dan Murphy, a thirteen year old boy of Burford Street, was this morning found hanging from a beam in his room, inflicted by his mother in a fit of anger. His body is one huge bullock. The boy refused to do what his mother wanted him to do, so she snatched a pair of sharp scissars and cut his throat, then threw it at him. At the last, the pitiful boy cried for his father and begged the nurse to keep his mother away from him.

Negotiating For Coast Terminals for C.N.R.

Vancouver, B.C., August 28.—Winnipeg grain dealers, who have been here what takes a fair amount of grain to the U.S. have been instrumental in negotiations with the M. H. Muller Co. for the construction of a port at Port Simpson.

The heads are large and well filled and form another indication of the agricultural possibilities of this district.

Mr. E. Gowen is starting an upholstering and furniture repairing establishment on Hutton Avenue near the Cambie Street corner, where all kinds of work will be done. Mr. Gowen, who has been buying machinery brought in and will shortly be in a position to undertake the manufacture of furniture.

Miss Danyeluk was working in the extra car at the C. P. R. yards in Strathcona yesterday afternoon when the lever of a jack fell up and struck her in the eye. Dr. Archibald was summoned and after attending to the man ordered his removal to the hospital. The injury is not believed to be serious.

Publishing under Difficulties

The North West Flotilla Co. Ltd., a stock company, have opened a branch here under the management of Mr. A. M. Kent. The office will be in the customs office building, where the doors are open to understand, all kinds of shipping difficulties. The firm is one of standing and reputation in Edmonton and will do good business for an other, and moreover newspaper of the kind will be welcome.

Mr. Gowen has brought machinery brought in and will shortly be in a position to undertake the manufacture of furniture.

New Cabinet Ministers Sworn in

CHRONKS

At the police court this morning Jos. H. Turner, a silversmith, hardware and stock jobber, of the bridge, was summoned at the instance of Sanitary Inspector Turnbull for maintaining a nuisance by having his yard in a dirty condition and keeping too much stock therein. He was fined $20 and costs.

The Rev. Dr. Johnston, minister of the American Presbyterian church, Moncton, spent a few days in this city last week. While here he was a guest of Rev. Dr. McDonald's family.

Dr. Johnston is spending some weeks visiting the Mission stations in the west, and will be back in time for the American Presbyterian Synod of Canada. This church supports eighteen Home Mission stations in Alberta, in addition to this the Foreign Missions and the Home Missions in our own country and in other provinces.

Mr. Graham, leader of the opposition in Ontario, and Hon. Wm. Pugsley, of St. John, N.B., ex-premier of the province, were sworn in today as ministers of the Laurier cabinet, and Hon. H. H. Emerson.

Hon. Geo. P. Graham, a journalist, being editor and proprietor of the Brookville Recorder.

He is a young member of the Ontario legislature and a few months prior to his election was elevated to the cabinet to succeed the Hon. E. J. Davis.

On the retirement of Hon. Geo. W. Ross and his failing to the senate, Mr. Graham was selected as the party leader in the province.

Mr. Graham is a young man, a vigorous campaigner, has a large number of friends and opponents, and above all has a clear record.

Wm. Pugsley, K.C., D.C.L., was born at St. John and educated there.

He was a gold medalist at the University of New Brunswick in 1888, received a law degree in 1891, was a student at Guelph, and received a scholarship in 1895. He was called to the bar in 1897.

He was admitted to the bar of the province in 1898, and received the degree of LL.B. in 1900.

He was speaker of the house from March 1887 to May 1888, when he was a member of the executive committee of the Conservative party, and remained in 1897. In 1898 he was an unsuccessful candidate for the House of Commons in St. John.

He was again elected to the legislature in 1900, and was speaker of the house in 1901.

He was appointed Attorney General in 1902, and remained in that position until the fall of the ministry in 1904.

He was speaker of the house from March 1905 to May 1906.

He was a member of the executive committee of the Conservative party in 1906.

He was speaker of the house in 1907.

He was speaker of the house in 1908, and remained in that position until the fall of the ministry in 1910.

He was speaker of the house in 1911.

He was speaker of the house in 1912.

He was speaker of the house in 1913.

He was speaker of the house in 1914.

He was speaker of the house in 1915.

He was speaker of the house in 1916.

He was speaker of the house in 1917.

He was speaker of the house in 1918.

He was speaker of the house in 1919.

He was speaker of the house in 1920.

He was speaker of the house in 1921.

He was speaker of the house in 1922.

He was speaker of the house in 1923.

He was speaker of the house in 1924.

He was speaker of the house in 1925.

He was speaker of the house in 1926.

He was speaker of the house in 1927.

He was speaker of the house in 1928.

He was speaker of the house in 1929.

He was speaker of the house in 1930.

He was speaker of the house in 1931.

He was speaker of the house in 1932.

He was speaker of the house in 1933.

He was speaker of the house in 1934.

He was speaker of the house in 1935.

He was speaker of the house in 1936.

He was speaker of the house in 1937.

He was speaker of the house in 1938.

He was speaker of the house in 1939.

He was speaker of the house in 1940.

He was speaker of the house in 1941.

He was speaker of the house in 1942.

He was speaker of the house in 1943.

He was speaker of the house in 1944.

He was speaker of the house in 1945.

He was speaker of the house in 1946.

He was speaker of the house in 1947.

He was speaker of the house in 1948.

He was speaker of the house in 1949.

He was speaker of the house in 1950.

He was speaker of the house in 1951.

He was speaker of the house in 1952.

He was speaker of the house in 1953.

He was speaker of the house in 1954.

He was speaker of the house in 1955.

He was speaker of the house in 1956.

He was speaker of the house in 1957.

He was speaker of the house in 1958.

He was speaker of the house in 1959.

He was speaker of the house in 1960.

He was speaker of the house in 1961.

He was speaker of the house in 1962.

He was speaker of the house in 1963.

He was speaker of the house in 1964.

He was speaker of the house in 1965.

He was speaker of the house in 1966.

He was speaker of the house in 1967.

He was speaker of the house in 1968.

He was speaker of the house in 1969.

He was speaker of the house in 1970.

He was speaker of the house in 1971.

He was speaker of the house in 1972.

He was speaker of the house in 1973.

He was speaker of the house in 1974.

He was speaker of the house in 1975.

He was speaker of the house in 1976.

He was speaker of the house in 1977.

He was speaker of the house in 1978.

He was speaker of the house in 1979.

He was speaker of the house in 1980.

He was speaker of the house in 1981.

He was speaker of the house in 1982.

He was speaker of the house in 1983.

He was speaker of the house in 1984.

He was speaker of the house in 1985.

He was speaker of the house in 1986.

He was speaker of the house in 1987.

He was speaker of the house in 1988.

He was speaker of the house in 1989.

He was speaker of the house in 1990.

He was speaker of the house in 1991.

He was speaker of the house in 1992.

He was speaker of the house in 1993.

He was speaker of the house in 1994.

He was speaker of the house in 1995.

He was speaker of the house in 1996.

He was speaker of the house in 1997.

He was speaker of the house in 1998.

He was speaker of the house in 1999.

He was speaker of the house in 2000.

He was speaker of the house in 2001.

He was speaker of the house in 2002.

He was speaker of the house in 2003.

He was speaker of the house in 2004.

He was speaker of the house in 2005.

He was speaker of the house in 2006.

He was speaker of the house in 2007.

He was speaker of the house in 2008.

He was speaker of the house in 2009.

He was speaker of the house in 2010.

He was speaker of the house in 2011.

He was speaker of the house in 2012.

He was speaker of the house in 2013.

He was speaker of the house in 2014.

He was speaker of the house in 2015.

He was speaker of the house in 2016.

He was speaker of the house in 2017.

He was speaker of the house in 2018.

He was speaker of the house in 2019.

He was speaker of the house in 2020.

He was speaker of the house in 2021.

He was speaker of the house in 2022.

He was speaker of the house in 2023.

He was speaker of the house in 2024.

He was speaker of the house in 2025.

He was speaker of the house in 2026.

He was speaker of the house in 2027.

He was speaker of the house in 2028.

He was speaker of the house in 2029.

He was speaker of the house in 2030.

He was speaker of the house in 2031.

He was speaker of the house in 2032.

He was speaker of the house in 2033.

He was speaker of the house in 2034.

He was speaker of the house in 2035.

He was speaker of the house in 2036.

He was speaker of the house in 2037.

He was speaker of the house in 2038.

He was speaker of the house in 2039.

He was speaker of the house in 2040.

He was speaker of the house in 2041.

He was speaker of the house in 2042.

He was speaker of the house in 2043.

He was speaker of the house in 2044.

He was speaker of the house in 2045.

He was speaker of the house in 2046.

He was speaker of the house in 2047.

He was speaker of the house in 2048.

He was speaker of the house in 2049.

He was speaker of the house in 2050.

He was speaker of the house in 2051.

He was speaker of the house in 2052.

He was speaker of the house in 2053.

He was speaker of the house in 2054.

He was speaker of the house in 2055.

He was speaker of the house in 2056.

He was speaker of the house in 2057.

He was speaker of the house in 2058.

He was speaker of the house in 2059.

He was speaker of the house in 2060.

He was speaker of the house in 2061.

He was speaker of the house in 2062.

He was speaker of the house in 2063.

He was speaker of the house in 2064.

He was speaker of the house in 2065.

He was speaker of the house in 2066.

He was speaker of the house in 2067.

He was speaker of the house in 2068.

He was speaker of the house in 2069.

He was speaker of the house in 2070.

He was speaker of the house in 2071.

He was speaker of the house in 2072.

He was speaker of the house in 2073.

He was speaker of the house in 2074.

He was speaker of the house in 2075.

He was speaker of the house in 2076.

He was speaker of the house in 2077.

He was speaker of the house in 2078.

He was speaker of the house in 2079.

He was speaker of the house in 2080.

He was speaker of the house in 2081.

He was speaker of the house in 2082.

He was speaker of the house in 2083.

He was speaker of the house in 2084.

He was speaker of the house in 2085.

He was speaker of the house in 2086.

He was speaker of the house in 2087.

He was speaker of the house in 2088.

He was speaker of the house in 2089.

He was speaker of the house in 2090.

He was speaker of the house in 2091.

He was speaker of the house in 2092.

He was speaker of the house in 2093.

He was speaker of the house in 2094.

He was speaker of the house in 2095.

He was speaker of the house in 2096.

He was speaker of the house in 2097.

